Dear Pully,

It has been a great pleasure having
you as a classmate all these years. Always remember the good days at Leasburg School.

Boy! didn't we get in the "most fights!"
What about our last year there. 8th grade.

Also don't forget the days at K.V.H.S.

You have been a swell friend.

I love you,

Ann Dukes

Dear Bally,
Just keep on being

way!
Love
Mrs. Featherston

Just always Georgia Ann R.

Dearest Polly.

what I think of you I could not put into words.
but I can tell you a few.

Polly, you are the "cutest" girl in the Sophomores of B. of H. S. It is a little silly to put this in a book of this kind but I did anyway.

Polly, I think more of you than any girl I know or not to have dated you. Don't forget that I still want to date you.

Polly, you are a cute girl, a good sport, and besides all a wonderful classmate I hope we spend even next two years together at "good" old "B of H. S." I wish you the best of luck, the best things
in life I hope you get them.

I hope you don't get mad when they "bid" you about me, at least I don't when they bid me about you.
you are a nice girl, that's why I like for them to bid me about you.

Polly, "the best of luck always!"

Bernice Ford
